

I oppose the Consumer Bankers Association initiative to change the current Indiana standards governing unsolicited telephone communications to consumers.

Please do NOT permit banks, credit card companies, or any other organizations with which I might have at some time had a "business relationship" to use that relationship as an excuse to bother me at home with telephone calls that I don't want.